Readings for March 19, 2023

First Reading: Then Samuel, with the horn of oil in hand, anointed David in the presence of his brothers; and from that day on, the spirit of the LORD rushed upon David. (1 Sm 16:13)

Second Reading: "Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will give you light." (Eph 5:14)

Gospel: He spat on the ground and made clay with the saliva, and smeared the clay on his eyes, and said to him, "Go wash in the Pool of Siloam" — which means Sent — So he went and washed, and came back able to see. (Jn 9:6-7)

4TH SUNDAY OF LENT

When Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, he found him and said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?" - Jn 9:35

MISSION STATEMENT

We, the family of Most Holy Redeemer Parish, commit ourselves to enriching our relationship with God by following the teachings of Jesus Christ. With the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we continue to build the Kingdom of God in our midst. Our vision is to foster the faith of all through prayer, service, education, and ministry.

A MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

“Why do I have to confess my sins to a priest, a flawed human being? Why can’t I just confess my sins directly to God and tell God I’m sorry? Why do I have to go through an intermediary?” That is a question I have been asked many times over the years. While certainly a legitimate question, it also betrays a lack of understanding of the sacrament of Penance, or Reconciliation as we often refer to it today.

When our Lord gave His Apostles the power to forgive sins in His name, He did not leave them with a formula or ritual to use. At first, there was no need in the Church for a sacrament of Penance. Everyone had to be baptized to join the Church, and baptism forgave, not only original sin, but all personal sin an individual had committed up to that point.

The question then became, “What about sins committed after baptism, especially, what about those who abandoned the faith in time of persecution and now want to be part of the Church again?” A rite of Penance started to develop. This took the form of confession to a priest, followed by a period of penance which was very public. Everyone knew you had sinned and wanted to be part of the Church again. At the end of the period of penance, the penitent would receive absolution and be welcomed back into the Church. A person was only allowed to receive the sacrament of Penance once, which led to many people waiting for death to be imminent before receiving Penance.

There are two things to keep in mind here. One is that sin was seen not just as an offense against God. Sin was also an offense against the Church. Sin weakened the whole Body of Christ. That was true of those who abandoned the faith in time of persecution. It is still true today. For example, when we don’t have a truly legitimate reason for not being there, missing Mass on Sunday is still a sin. We have seen in recent years many parishes closing and others unifying with each other in large part because Sunday Mass attendance is so low. That sin has affected more than just the person who misses Mass. The whole Church is weakened by it.

The second thing is that since sin was not only an offense against God but also against the Church, a sinner had to be reconciled with God and also with the Church. The priest has a dual role in this sacrament. The priest stands in the place of Christ, letting the penitent know that God forgives him or her. But the priest is also the representative of the Church, and lets the penitent know the Church also forgives him or her and welcomes that person back. If we understand that sin not only offends God but also weakens the Church, we will see why we celebrate this sacrament as we do. We will also understand the dual role of the priest.

While the practice on the continent of Europe during the days of the Roman Empire was to receive this sacrament only once, a different practice developed in Ireland. A more private ritual developed there. A penitent would meet privately with a priest to receive this sacrament. Penance was not public by nature. You could also receive this sacrament as often as you desired. After the Roman Empire fell, Irish monks who came to re-Christianize Europe brought this practice with them. It came to dominate and is the practice we are familiar with today. Even though the celebration of the sacrament was more private than public, sin still offended God and also the Church. You still had to confess your sins to a priest.

While this is the reason why we confess our sins to a priest, I think it is good to see some practical benefits to receiving this sacrament. One is that it gives us a chance to take stock of our lives. It’s very easy to fall into the trap of saying, “Ah, that’s not so bad,” of the sins we commit. Our sins can get worse and worse, and we can drift farther and farther away from God if we don’t take stock of our lives on a regular basis. Confessing our sins to a priest is a way to unburden ourselves. Many of us are weighed down by the things we have done and the guilt we feel. Confessing our sins is a way to relieve ourselves of this. Receiving the sacrament of Penance also gives us a concrete starting point to begin to change our lives. If you think about it, most of us resolve to change our lives on New Year’s Eve and Ash Wednesday. .

I think that's true in great part to the fact that they are concrete starting points. We can point to those days and say, "From this point on, I'm going to do better." We can say the same thing every time we go to confession. Finally, the sacrament of Penance gives us physical reassurance that our sins are forgiven. As human beings, we need that. We can confess our sins directly to God, but we're not going to hear God tell us we're forgiven as we will hear the priest tell us that. Even though we believe with all our heart that God forgives us, we still need that reassurance from time to time. We receive it from the priest in the sacrament of Penance.

I hope this helps us understand this sacrament a little better. We are certainly encouraged to receive this sacrament during Lent. There will be a Communal Reconciliation Service on Wednesday at 7:00 PM. There will be additional opportunities to receive this sacrament as Easter approaches. I hope we will take advantage of them.

Fr. Jim Hyland

OUR PARISH. OUR COMMUNITY.

The MHR School Foundation is a 501(c)3 not-for-profit entity. Recently founded by parents in the community, the MHR Foundation aims to support the long-term success of the school, our parish and our community.

www.mhrfoundation.com

WHAT WE DO

The MHR Foundation raises funds for the sole benefit of our parish school. The establishment of the MHR Foundation ensures that every year Most Holy Redeemer School will receive a monetary gift (10% of our total assets) from the foundation's endowment. As the endowment grows, this annual gift will increase and goes directly to the operating budget of the school. The school's operating budget includes expenses like teachers' salary, technological improvements, and building upkeep and maintenance. Growing an endowment will help ensure that Most Holy Redeemer can continue to provide quality, value based Catholic education.

OUR STORY

The MHR Foundation story is just beginning. It started with a group of parents asking how can we promote Catholic education and ensure the long-term success and financial health of our school? With that, the idea of the MHR Foundation came into existence. Fundraising began with the successful launch of Raider Races, which allowed the MHR School Foundation to make its first monetary donation to the school.

Most Holy Redeemer parish is our faith-based community that has flourished for more than eight decades. For many of us, the MHR experience has become the foundation of our lives, education, faith and community. MHR has been a defining force in our hearts, marriages, children, friends, family and traditions. We are beyond proud to call ourselves the Most Holy Redeemer Raiders!

Whether you are a stakeholder in our community, active parishioner, student, alumni, parent, or grandparent we need you to answer the bell during MHR's time of need. As a community of believers, the strength of our school is ours to build together. Our best days are in front of us as we pass the torch with a brighter flame to a fresh group of stewards.

As we expand our fundraisers and seek donor support, we look forward to continuing this story with our parish, our school, and our community. We are deeply grateful for your support!
