A MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

It's no secret that fewer and fewer people today claim any religious affiliation with a particular religious denomination or church. More and more people are leaving the practice of religious faith behind. I have seen a number of articles on the internet lately documenting reasons for this. Some of the reasons are what you would expect: people have lost faith in church leaders, or disagree with various teachings, or feel religion is out of touch with life today, or have fallen out of the habit of religious practice. Some of the reasons are more novel. I always feel those who leave the practice of their faith because they find "religious faith incompatible with science" to be largely misinformed. For example, the Catholic Church is not against the theory of evolution as long as it doesn't leave God out of the picture. Life can evolve as long as God is acknowledged as the creator and sustainer of all life, that evolution proceeds according to God's plan, and that at some point, God offered a special relationship with Him and a sharing in His life to human beings. To say that religion is incompatible with science would ignore the contributions of people like Roger Bacon, a Franciscan priest who was instrumental in developing the scientific method, Nicolaus Copernicus, a Church Canon who determined that the earth moved around the sun, not vice versa, Gregor Mendel, an Augustinian priest who developed the laws of heredity, and Georges Lemaitre, a Belgian priest who proposed the Big Bang theory. The more we learn about the intricacies of the universe or how the human body works, the less likely it would seem that this all happened by chance. Science would seem to support the existence of God when you look at it this way.

I found one of the more novel reasons people gave for leaving the church and the practice of their faith was that "prayers were not answered." If everyone left the church and religious practice because of unanswered prayers, churches would have no members at all. All of us have prayers that have gone unanswered, if by unanswered you mean your prayers were not given the answer you wanted. This betrays a certain way of looking at prayer. Prayer is meant to be a conversation with God. To have a conversation means you have to give the other person the opportunity to speak. We can't do all the talking in a conversation, although some of us do. We have to listen to the other person in order to have a true conversation.

Too often I think, our prayer is a one-way conversation in which we do all the talking. We tell God what to do, how to do it, and when to do it. Prayer becomes a one-way conversation in which we tell God what to do and try to convince God that what we are asking for is really best. We don't give God a chance to speak to us. We don't listen to what God may be trying to tell us about what we are asking for. Maybe we don't give God a chance to give a different, and maybe better, answer to our prayers. Prayer is supposed to help attune us more to the mind of God. Prayer is to help us see things God's way, not to convince God to see things our way. This is something we all struggle with. I know in my own prayer I often find myself telling God what to do instead of listening for what God is telling me to do. If I spent more time listening to God, I might find fewer unanswered prayers.

"You never listen!" is a common complaint in many relationships. Faced with unanswered prayers, we might lodge that complaint against God. What we forget is that God could lodge the same complaint against us. Let's try to keep in mind that prayer is a conversation, and that means we have to listen as well as talk. Let's try to make sure we give God the chance to speak to us in our prayer. Let's try to listen to what God is saying. Doing so could lead to fewer unanswered prayers, and one less reason to leave the Church and the practice of our faith.

Understanding Alternative Treatments

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 2023
Starts at 11:30 AM
Tickets $25 per person

Conventional medicine may not have all the answers or solutions for every medical condition. Exploring alternative treatments can help fill in these gaps, offering options for individuals who may not respond well to or benefit from standard treatments. Some people may also prefer alternative treatments based on a desire for a more holistic approach, cultural or religious beliefs.

Pathlights' expert panel will discuss alternative treatments for ailments including, but not limited to, chronic pain, anxiety, depression, weight loss, and sleeping problems. Treatment topics include cannabinoids, stem cell therapy, hypnotherapy, acupuncture, and transcranial magnetic stimulation.

Generously sponsored by Right at Home, In Home Care & Assistance.

Since the program launched, 16 parishes have signed on to fund and/or accompany a family for six months. To date, 36 families are being assisted.

To find out how to get involved, email Rose Marie Lesniak-Mendez at welcomethestranger@catholiccharities.net.

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE HIGHEST PAYOUT RATES IN OVER A DECADE!

The archdiocesan rates for charitable gift annuities have increased again. When you establish a charitable gift annuity with the archdiocese, not only will you receive fixed payments for life, but you can designate our parish, school or ministry – such as the Annual Catholic Appeal – as the remainder beneficiary.

You can schedule payments according to your financial needs, and enjoy immediate and future tax benefits, including a federal income tax deduction for a portion of your gift, if you itemize. Also, a portion of each annuity payment will be tax-free (through life expectancy). The funds remaining after your lifetime will support our parish or school – as designated by you.

For more information, please visit giving.archchicago.org/cga. To receive a free, no-obligation personalized illustration of how you could benefit from a Charitable Gift Annuity, contact Krystina M. Campbell, Planned Giving Officer, Archdiocese of Chicago at 312.534.5404 or kcampbell@archchicago.org.
