MISSION STATEMENT

We, the family of Most Holy Redeemer Parish, commit ourselves to enriching our relationship with God by following the teachings of Jesus Christ. A MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

Whether it's with flowers, or candy, or breakfast in bed, or jewelry, or clothing, or a nice brunch or dinner, all of us will be looking for a way this weekend to show our mothers that we love them. Hopefully, we let our mothers know they are loved more than once a year. But we want to make sure we let them know that on Mother's Day.

If you go by what you read in the paper or see on television or the internet, then flowers, or jewelry, or brunch, or a day at a spa are really the best ways to show our mothers that we love them. If we go by what we read in Scripture, maybe there's an even better way.

In the gospel this Sunday, Jesus says, "If you love me, you will keep my commandments." Certainly, keeping His commandments shows that we love our Lord. But keeping their commandments can also show other people that we love them. When I look back, I think that is what my mother wanted most from her children. She wanted us to listen to her and do what she said. I remember one time in particular. Our fighting with one another had brought her to the point of tears. Not wanting her to begin crying, we stopped our fighting long enough to urge her, "Don't cry, Mom! We love you! Please don't cry!" "Well," she said, "if you love me, you sure have a funny way of showing it." She would have traded all our verbal assurances of our love for the assurance of our love that listening to her and doing what she said would have given her.

Listening to my mother and doing what she asked would not only have made her feel loved. It would have made me a better person in many ways. Take the old saying a lot of mothers have, "If you can't say something nice about someone, then don't say anything at all." My mother certainly said that often enough. Had I followed that advice more often than I did, I would certainly be a better person. Life would also have been better for a lot of other people that I hurt by not keeping my mouth shut when I didn't have something nice to say. I can think of a lot of other ways in which I would be a better person, and maybe the lives of other people would have been better as well, if I had listened to my mother and done what she asked more often.

I hope we will show our mothers that we love them this weekend as we celebrate Mother's Day. In addition to the other gifts we will give them, I hope we will think about what we hear in the gospel today. If we love our Lord, we will keep His commandments. The same thing is true of our mothers. If we love them, we will try to listen to them and do what they say. This will not only let them know that we love them. It will make our lives, and the lives of other people, a lot better too. Happy Mother's Day!

Fr. Jim Hyland

"If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot accept, because it neither sees nor knows him. But you know him, because he remains with you, and will be in you." — Jn 14:15-17

| MOST HOLY REDEEMER | SCHOOL

School May Crowning

Our eighth graders lead the school in a beautiful May Crowning Service. The readings and prayers were all led by the eighth graders and then they processed with the rest of the school body outside to crown Mary. Mary was crowned by a student chosen by her peers who most emulated the qualities of our Blessed Mother. Gemma Signorelli was chosen for this honor.

First Holy Communion

Our second grade students and Religious Education students received their first Holy Communion on Saturday, May 6th. Students prepared for this blessed sacrament over the last year and they were very excited to welcome Jesus into their hearts.

WHOEVER HAS MY COMMANDMENTS AND OBSERVES THEM IS THE ONE WHO LOVES ME. WHOEVER LOVES ME WILL BE LOVED BY MY FATHER, AND I WILL LOVE HIM AND REVEAL MYSELF TO HIM. (JOHN 14:21)

As stewards of our faith, you can express your gratitude for God’s gifts and help ensure that God’s good work on earth continues by considering a charitable gift annuity. When you establish a charitable gift annuity with the archdiocese, not only will you receive fixed payments for life, but you can designate our parish as the remainder beneficiary.

You can schedule payments according to your financial needs, and enjoy immediate and future tax benefits, including a federal income tax deduction for a portion of your gift, if you itemize. Also, a portion of each annuity payment will be tax-free (through life expectancy). The funds remaining after your lifetime will support our parish or school – as designated by you.
