A MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

The author G. K. Chesterton was raised as a Unitarian. He later became a member of the Anglican Church in England. At the age of 48, he converted to the Catholic faith. He was often asked why he became a Catholic, and in response wrote a famous essay titled, Why I Am a Catholic. In the essay, he lists many reasons why he became a Catholic. One of the reasons is, "To get rid of my sins."

Chesterton saw a great value in the Sacrament of Reconciliation (Penance as it was called when he became a Catholic). He saw a great value in being freed of his sins. He saw a great value in the chance to begin again with a clean slate. He saw a great value in being able to unburden himself of a lot of the guilt and anguish and regret that sin causes.

The Sacrament of Reconciliation still offers us the opportunity today to be freed from our sins and all that accompanies our sins. Even with all that the sacrament offers, so many do not make use of it. "How long has it been since your last confession?" is a question that might cause a lot of embarrassment to many Catholics. Going to confession and receiving the Sacrament of Reconciliation is something we are encouraged to do during Lent as we prepare to renew our baptismal promises on Easter Sunday. Maybe many of us need to understand why we celebrate the sacrament as we do and the value of receiving the sacrament.

One of the main reasons people tell me for not going to confession is they don't feel they need to confess their sins to a priest. They just confess their sins directly to God. While we can and should ask God's forgiveness in prayer, thinking this way indicates that we believe God is the only one who is hurt by our sins and the only one we need to ask forgiveness from, and we don't need a priest for that. Even if we expand a little bit to say that we also need forgiveness from the person or persons we directly hurt by our sins, we don't need a priest for that either.

Sin though, does not just hurt God or even those directly affected by our sins. Our sins weaken the Church, the Body of Christ in the world. When we sin, we hurt all the members of the Church, even if they are not directly affected by our sin. That was how the celebration of this sacrament began – as a way to welcome back into the Church those who had weakened the Church by abandoning their faith in times of persecution. The reason why sins were confessed to a priest was that the priest had a dual role. As God's representative, he let the penitents know they were forgiven by God. As the representative of the Church, the priest also let the penitents know they were welcomed back into the Church. That is still the reason why we confess our sins to a priest today. It is because our sin hurts not only God and those directly affected by our sins, but all the Church as well.

Even if we understand why we celebrate the sacrament as we do, we still may not see a value in it. I would like to suggest three reasons to receive this sacrament. One is that it gives us an opportunity to take stock of our lives. What are we doing? Which direction are we heading in? We need to take a good look at our lives on a regular basis. If we don't, it becomes too easy to say that the things we do "aren't so bad," or, "aren't as bad as what other people do." Without taking stock of our lives regularly, we might find that it isn't long before we are just as bad as those other people are. A second reason to receive this sacrament is in response to those who say they don't have to confess their sins to a priest because they confess them directly to God. When someone tells me that, I often say, "You certainly can confess your sins directly to God, but do you ever hear God tell you you're forgiven?" No one has ever told me they heard God's voice telling them they're forgiven. We may believe with all our heart that God forgives us. But as human beings, we still need the physical reassurance that we are forgiven. We have that reassurance through the priest's words of absolution. One final reason to receive this sacrament is that it gives us a concrete starting point for changing our lives. If you think about it, most resolutions to try to change our lives are made on New Year's Day and on Ash Wednesday. These days give us a concrete starting point. We can say, "Beginning this day, I am going to change something about myself." Every time we receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation, it gives us a concrete starting point to turn from our sins and live a new life

I hope you will try to make the Sacrament of Reconciliation part of your Lenten preparation. In addition to our normal Saturday time for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, there will be a communal reconciliation service on Wednesday, March 20, at 7:30 PM in church. There will be an extended time for confession on Saturday, March 23, from 3:00 – 4:30 PM. Additional times for the Sacrament of Reconciliation are on Tuesday, March 26, from 7:00 – 8:00 PM, and on Saturday, March 30, from 10:00 – 11:00 AM.

Fr. Jim Hyland

McDonough Chapel | 7 - 8 p.m. | Cost: Free

“Power of the Holy Spirit:
To Empower, Inspire, and Console”
*Joanne Kuttner, D.Min.

In the Gospel of John, Jesus promises the disciples that he will send the Holy Spirit to support them in their mission on earth. What is that mission? Who is the Holy Spirit, really? In this interactive session, we will explore these realities and begin to more deeply comprehend the presence of the Holy Spirit in our daily lives and in our world.

Joanne Kuttner, D.Min., specializes in pastoral theology and spirituality. She is a senior lecturer in theology at Lewis University. At Lewis, she has served as the program director of the Rome study abroad program for five years. She applied for and received a Lily Grant for a program called “Engaging Stories,” a seven-day theology summer camp bringing together high school students from across the country. She has been the director of the program since its beginning nine years ago. She has also served in a variety of leadership roles in her parish for over 25 years.

OUR DROP OF WATER TO EASE BURNING IMMIGRATION ISSUES IN CHICAGO

In October 2022, Mercy Sisters Pat Murphy and JoAnn Persch were asked by the Sanctuary Working Group to help an asylum-seeking mother and five children from Sierra Leone. They brought the need to the Chicago Mercy Justice Committee of sisters and associates who agreed to find funds, housing, and all else the family would need. They didn't realize that they were on the road to starting a non-profit, but they were.

Visions of the buses, tents, overflowing police stations and shelters impelled a small group to accept and help other asylum-seeking families, and Catherine's Caring Cause, named for Sisters of Mercy foundress Catherine McAuley, was founded. By the end of 2023, it was Catherine's Caring Cause, Inc NFP. Since its inception, CCC has situated nine families in eight furnished homes on Chicago's southside. Each home has a mentor who helps with everything from enrolling kids in school to helping with medical and legal issues to explaining how washing machines work (Google Translate is a God-send for Venezuelan families) and everything in between. We are currently helping 13 adults and 23 children and are searching for two more homes.

We need YOUR help as we struggle to raise funds to pay rent, utilities, legal and medical fees. We also need mentors and others to help with such things as driving and teaching English.

Please check out our website at catherinecareschicago.org and contact Carol Conway, cairec49@yahoo.com or 708-227-3560, for more information. Thank you!
